

KUCI 88.9 FM FALL MUSIC LISTENING GUIDE

THE MOUNTAIN GOATS Get Lonely (4AD) For a fellow who's happily married, this guy is able to perfectly distill every awful emotion of a breakup into amazing songwriting glory. It's probably just because he's a genius.

GRIZZLY BEAR Yellow House (Warp) Somber, beautiful, and organic folk that, even in it's calmness, belies the strength of its namesake. Has some of the ferality of Animal Collective, but less likely to frighten the elderly.

XIU XIU The Air Force (5RC) Possibly their best yet. Eleven more songs of self-aware, melodramatic, cacophonous avant-pop. Guaranteed to be hated by sorority girls.

AKRON/FAMILY Meek Warrior (Young God) After an initial track of complete psychotic freak-out, these bearded gents get back down to their communal, hypnotic freak-folk singalongs.

NOUVELLE VAGUE Bande a Part (Luaka Bop) Frenchified covers of 80s songs. You know how Billy Idol isn't conducive to sexy poolside champagne parties? Here's the solution.

YO LA TENGO I Am Not Afraid of You and I Will Beat Your Ass (Matador) When three dorky, guitar-slinging indie-dorks think they can beat your ass, you've clearly made some poor choices in your life.

GIRL TALK NIGHT Ripper (Illegal Art) This album plus people equals instant hipster soirée. Mashes up all of your fav indie classics with mainstream hiphop for an album you can dance to, or cross your arms and enjoy ironically. Fun for everyone!

THE BLUERUNNERS Honey Slides (Bayou Vista) The best Cajun zydeco rock album ever, and it comes from Lafayette!

SAY HI TO YOUR MOM Impeccable Blahs (Euphobia) Totally chill electro-pop songs about vampires? My inner Buffy fan rejoices!

BEIRUT Gulag Orkestar (Ba Da Bing) Sounds like an eastern European gypsy caravan and features members of Neutral Milk Hotel. Two great tastes that taste great together.

COMETS ON FIRE Avatar (Sub Pop) May not be as meteoric and heavy as their last album, but these dudes still love guitars and echoplexes and completely amazing psychedelic rock that sounds like it should be coming out of a Wisconsin basement circa 1972.

PINE LEAF BOYS La Mulsque (Arhoolie) Arhoolie Records' youngest signers-on combine the attitude of twenty-something youth with traditional sound to rock out in a non-rock way.

TAPES 'N TAPES The Loon (XL) This one's been around for a while, but it's starting to get radio promo now. Combine the slightly unhinged rhythmic rock of Clap Your Hands Say Yeah and the shambolic nature of Pavement for good times.

THE THERMALS The Body The Blood The Machine (Sub Pop) All the energy and fire of a garage rock band with way more actual songwriting ability and melodic sense, and 100% less of jeans that are too-tight.

PDX POP NOW! 2006 Compilation (PDX Pop Now!) Two-disk, 40-track compilation of bands from Portland basically being totally awesome. Proceeds from the comp go to funding the yearly FREE concert in Oregon. Better start packing now.

"The world demanded a better way to DJ in the field. So, we took on the challenge. Introducing the DRYERTRON 2000 — half-Maytag dryer, half-mobile DJ console. What started out as a broken household dryer ended up revolutionizing the way KUCI DJs deliver music to the public."
